WHY WHAT WE DO MATTERS

The Project Management Institute (PMI) estimates that GDP contributions from project-oriented industries are forecasted to reach $20.2 trillion over the next 20 years, yet only.

58%

of organizations
"fully understand
the value of project
management."
(pmi.org)

41%

of organizations "with an enterprise-wide project management office (EPMO) report that it is highly aligned to the organization's strategy."
(pmi.org)

33%

of organizations "report high benefits realization maturity. Meaning they face challenges tracking whether they help the organization achieve its larger strategic goals."

HOW OUR CONTENT MAKES A DIFFERENCE

Our all-star team of experienced and certified Project Management Professionals (PMPs) provide the kind of high-value, relevant, current, and trustworthy project management articles, podcasts, and videos that business leaders need to make faster, informed decisions.

Our content helps key decision-makers understand the true and full value of effective project management.

We provide our audience with valuable and relevant articles, podcasts, videos, and industry news.

We help professionals and companies improve their practices around resource selection, product development, processes, procurement, and technology.

These improvements can then funnel through to higher benefits realization maturity to increase alignment with the organization's overall strategy.

A man in a dark suit is seen from the side, gesturing with his right hand towards a blurred audience in a large hall. The background is filled with warm, out-of-focus lights, suggesting a conference or event setting.

PMWorld 360 Magazine has become a trusted 'go-to' project management source for project management information.

For companies with products or services that align with any of our topics - our audience is your audience!
